DIANDRA ASBATY

Diandra Asbaty is one of the most accomplished women in bowling today.

From her recent Queens championship to years of international success with Team USA, the Silver level USBC coach developed a passion for coaching because of all the amazing coaches she has had in her life, according to her website.

From the youth bowling coaches at Stardust III in Dyer to her University of Nebraska coaches and on to her Team USA coaches, Diandra has developed the ability to pass that knowledge onto bowlers of all ages.

Her bowling resume includes:

- * More than 60 international medals
- * Team USA 1999-2011
- * World Bowler of the Year 2007
- * World Cup Champion 2006
- * Malaysian Open Champion 2006
- * National Amateur Champion 1999, 2006
- * World Bowling Hall of Fame 2005
- * World Ranking Masters Champion 2004
- * Bowlers Journal International Amateur Bowler of the Year 2000, 2001, 2003, 2006
- * USOC Athlete of the Year, Bowling 2000, 2003
- * Champion at 2007 PBA Women's Series Great Lakes Classic
- * Champion at 2010 PBA Don and Paula Carter Mixed Doubles (with Brian Voss)

2012 | Mike Kubacki

HALL OF FAME

Name: Michael J. Kubacki

Age: 45

Hometown: Griffith

Family: Wife, Elizabeth; daughter, Nicole; son, Michael; stepson, Jake; step-daughter, Erica; and Rusty

Occupation: Head coach, Mens Bowling Calumet College of St Joseph

Hobbies: Exercise, Bears, Bulls, Cubs, traveling

How long have you been a bowler? 35 years

What is your greatest accomplishment in bowling? Probably starting with the front 21 strikes at state tournament shooting 300/836, because it was the first time my wife went with me and got to see it.

What is your proudest moment outside of bowling? Being a father, stepfather, husband and uncle.

What should people know about you that they don't know? I have strived to find life's balance only bowling one or two leagues, so I could be softball coach, bowling coach, serve at First Christian Church on Fellowship, as a deacon of finance and a trustee, as well serving my town of Griffith as a lead member on our Downtown Revitalization Committee.

2012 | Jerry Michalak

HALL OF FAME

Name: Jerry A. Michalak

Age: 63

Hometown: Crown Point

Family: Wife, Sandy; daughter, Millie; son, Jerry Jr.

Occupation: Retired from the steel industry (25 years) and bowling pro shop manger (12 years). Now working in customer service at Plaza Lanes where some say I'm the colored pin overlord and he who holds the Plaza dollars.

Hobbies: Bowling, grandchildren (with all their sporting events)

How long have you been a bowler? More than 50 years

What is your greatest accomplishment in bowling? It keeps getting better; 1st 300 in 1980; 868 series in '02-03; GCABA bowler of the year in '02-03; and now election to the hall of fame.

What is your proudest moment outside of bowling? Birth of my children, then grandchildren

What should people know about you that they don't know? I'm very patriotic, and I was a high school referee for basketball and football.
